

Curriculum Vitae

Dr. med. Dirk Mentzer

WORK EXPERIENCE

June 1991–July 1997 Medical doctor

University Children's Hospital Frankfurt, (Germany)

Medical education was performed at University hospital in Frankfurt am Main, Germany. Paediatric specialist training commenced 1991 at University Children hospital in Frankfurt am Main until 1997 with special interest in paediatric Immunology, Haematology and HIV-infected children.

August 1997–July 1999 Medical doctor

Royal Belfast Hospital for Sick Children, (United Kingdom)

Continued specialist paediatric training at the Royal Belfast Hospital for Sick Children in Northern Ireland. The special interest during this part of Paediatric specialist training included Neonatology and Intensive care, paediatric Oncology, paediatric cardiology and accident/emergency admission.

September 1999–August 2003 Medical doctor

University Children's Hospital, (Germany)

Finalising Paediatric specialist training followed by an appointment as a Consultant in General Paediatric leading the accident/emergency admission unit at University Children hospital in Frankfurt am Main.

September 2003–February 2004 Medical doctor

Hospital Uelzen, (Germany)

Appointment as a Lead Consultant in General Paediatric

March 2004–August 2004 Medical doctor

Princess Royal University Hospital, (United Kingdom)

Appointment in Paediatric (Neonatology) at Princess Royal University Hospital in Bromley, London as middle grade Staff.

September 2004–Present Medical doctor

Paul-Ehrlich-Institut, (Germany)

The duties responsibilities as Head of Pharmacovigilance at the German national agency for Vaccine and biomedical products (Paul-Ehrlich-Institut) commenced in 2004. Based on the specialized responsibility in Pharmacovigilance and the paediatric medical education the CHMP has supported the appointment as a co-opted member for paediatric pharmacovigilance into the Pharmacovigilance Working Party at EMA from 2006 – 2012.

EDUCATION AND TRAINING

April 1986–May 1991 medical Doctor

Johann-Wolfgang-Goethe University in Frankfurt, (Germany)

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Expertise

- Paediatric specialist training including:
- Neonatology
- Paediatric Haematology and infectious disease
- Paediatric Radiology
- Paediatric Accident and Emergency admissionRegulatory experience
- Biomedical product authorisation
- paediatric pharmacovigilance
- pharmacoepidemiology

Memberships

- Member of the Drug Safety Commission of the German Society of Paediatrics since 3/2006
- Member of ISOP (international society of Pharmacovigilance)
- Member of the EMA Paediatric Committee since 07/ 2007
- Chairperson of Paediatric Committee since 2013